Application for "Life at the End of Life: Palliative Medicine and Service"
American Studies Seminar, Fall 2016
Thursdays 4:10-6 pm
Prof. Robert Pollack (pollack@columbia.edu)
TA: Tess Cersonsky (tec2120@columbia.edu)

PLEASE PRINT
Note: This course has a service learning requirement. Students admitted to the seminar will be expected to serve 4 hours a week at Terence Cardinal Cooke Health Care Center (TCC) in East Harlem as part of the At Your Service volunteer program. Shifts will be arranged through the At Your Service program coordinators and TCC project coordinator.

NAME________________________________________ UNI________________________ SCHOOL: _______

Expected Graduation Date_________________ Major/Conc. ________________________________

Telephone _________________ High school and location ______________________________

What attracts you to this seminar? Why are you interested in volunteering at TCC?

Have you worked with the elderly or chronically ill in college?

FOR TCC AT YOUR SERVICE APPLICATION

1. Previous Volunteer Work (Organization Name, Position, Duties, Name of Supervisor and Telephone)
2. Available Times for Volunteering
3. What departments are you most interested in? Do you speak another language?
4. Emergency Contact